NEWS RELEASE

February 11, 2009
Mariemont City Schools

Mariemont High School Staff and Students Recognized for Achievement by Board of Education

At their February 9th meeting, the Mariemont Board of Education recognized two teachers and ten students for outstanding achievement. Mariemont High School counselor Amanda Leszczuk was recognized for attaining National Board Certification, a rigorous and prestigious accreditation. Also from Mariemont High School, ten students were honored for their Rain Garden project which recently won a top $10,000 prize in the Lexus Eco-Challenge. Their faculty advisor, Mary Halsall, was also recognized. The students are Dillon Wilson, James Sayre, Cole Wilson, Cece Ebelhar, Carolyn Coates, McKenzie Miller, Jillian Kelly, Suzy Evans, Libby Peters and Stuart Simons. The Rain Garden project is now eligible for consideration for a national award of $50,000.

Photos:
BOELeszczuk - Mariemont High School counselor Amanda Leszczuk is congratulated by school superintendent Paul Imhoff for receiving National Board Certification.

BOERainGarden - The Mariemont Board of Education stands with students from Mariemont High School who recently won the top prize in the Lexus Eco-Challenge with their Rain Garden project.