

First Semester Exam for German I

1. Verb Conjugation (The box!! in sentences!)
2. Meanings of all the nominative case (box) pronouns
3. The numbers
Spelling 1-20 English to German
Recognizing all other numbers over twenty to the thousands
4. Recognizing possessive adjectives mein, dein, sein, ihr)
5. Conjugating the irregular verb HABEN
6. Conjugating the irregular verb SEIN
7. Using "the" (der, die, das, den)
8. Using "a or an" (ein, eine, einen)
9. Modal Verbs
The meanings
How to choose the correct conjugation
Writing sentences with modal verbs
10. Writing present tense sentences, specific questions and yes/no questions in German
11. Using separable prefix verbs in present tense sentences
12. Vocabulary
13. Reading practice

First Semester Exam for German II

1. Conversational Past of all verb types (present perfect tense)
2. Reflexive Verbs
Meanings
Reflexive Pronouns
Sentences with reflexive verbs (present tense, modals, conv.past)
3. Gefallen versus moegen -- dative pronouns with gefallen
4. Der-charts and ein-charts

5. Sentence writing:
Using ein- and der-words with correct inflectional endings for the Nominative, Accusative and Dative Cases
6. WAR- and HATTE- as narrative past forms for all conjugations
7. Using the prepositions in/an (p.73 in text for reference)
7. Vocabulary / Translation

Semester Exam for Deutsch III

1. Translating time expressions
2. Reflexive Verbs in Sentences
Correct use for reflexive pronouns
Reflexive verbs in present, past, future and modal sentences
3. Conversational Past tense (present perfect)
4. Wo and Da Compounds
5. Use of the verb gefallen (to please) in all tenses with the correct dative pronouns
6. Infinitive Phrases in complex sentences (4 types)
7. Haette gern phrases
8. would as WUERDE when making conditional statements and requests
9. Text translation

Semester Exam for German IV

1. Advanced proficiency in writing relative clauses to include:
  - a. Relative clauses with indefinite relative pronoun WAS
  - b. Relative clauses with introductory prepositions
2. The verb LASSEN (all tenses, especially double infinitive conv.pst)
  - a. Permission
  - b. Leaving something (not some place!)
  - c. Having something done

- 3. Past tense in sentences including modal verbs
(Conversational and Narrative Past)
- 4. Adjective Ending Proficiency
(after der-words, after ein-words and unpreceded adjectives)
- 5. The word WAS (war- verses wurde for the passive voice)
- 6. Reading a text for meaning and artistic translation (class project)
- 7. Film vocabulary